

Employer Directory Policy

The Employer directory should not be used to "spam" recruiters en masse. It is there to facilitate legitimate inquiry into a company. Abuse of the employer directory may result in employers opting to not display their contact information. Should a student or alumni abuse this privilege, they will be subject to the same disciplinary action as subscribers that "no-show" for interviews.