

Third-Party Recruiting Agreement

Oklahoma State University (OSU) recognizes a variety of third-party companies exist in today's competitive business world. Third-party recruiters are defined according to the National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE) as agencies, organizations, or individuals recruiting candidates for temporary, part-time, or full-time employment opportunities other than for their own needs. This includes entities that refer or recruit for profit or not for profit, and it includes agencies that collect student information to be disclosed to employers for purposes of recruitment and employment. Third-parties include but are not limited to third-party companies, headhunters, search firms, contract recruiters, temporary agencies and staffing services. Most agencies are very reputable, efficient at their craft, and a credit to the profession. Some engage in unethical and/or illegal registration, recruiting, interviewing, and selection practices. Such practices are damaging to all parties involved. We do not support or promote such activity because it generally violates current affirmative action an equal opportunity employment legislation, and especially the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 which governs our operation as a university career center. Because such activity exists, we must safeguard our University, our staff, and our graduates by carefully examining the agencies that approach us for services. In an effort to help provide every possible employment opportunity to our registrants, we choose to work with selected third-party employment services that meet university approval and agree to the following criteria:

1. No fees are charged or assessed to the candidates with whom this third-party recruiter provides service. If fees are assessed by this agency, then all are to be paid by the employer.
2. Third-party recruiters will abide by the Principles for Third-Party Recruiters as described in the NACE Principles for Professional Practice.
3. The third-party recruiter must actually be representing an organization and recruiting for a legitimate job within that organization. The third-party recruiter understands and expressly agrees that it shall provide any candidate materials only to the bona fide employer it is currently representing. Should OSU discover the third-party recruiter re-discloses information to another employer, the university will cease working with the third-party recruiter and require the return of all candidate information previously distributed.
4. The third-party recruiter will disclose the name, address, telephone number, and primary contact person the agency is representing (page 3 of this document) to OSU Career Services.
5. The third-party recruiter gives OSU Career Services permission to contact the employer to verify his/her contract, job, and any related information should it be deemed necessary.
6. The third-party recruiter gives their permission to disclose any and all information with prospective candidates who may inquire. OSU Career Services will endeavor to guard the identity of confidential clients who have contracted with the third-party recruiter, but reserves the right to disclose information to our candidates if deemed necessary.
7. The third-party recruiter agrees to comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of Equal Employment Opportunity, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Americans with Disabilities Act, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

8. The third-party recruiter agrees to ensure that re-disclosure of student information for other purposes, including other recruiting contracts, occurs only with the written consent of the student/alumni. Thus, any student information disclosed by OSU Career Services is for a single use only and not to be retained or re-disclosed for future contracts by the third-party recruiter.
9. Services available through the Hire System to third-party employers: Job postings and Career Fair registrations only. Job postings are free to third-party companies year-round; Career Fair registrations are subject to terms and fees.
10. Job postings must be posted under the third-party employer account and not from the third-party client without prior written approval from the client being serviced.
11. OSU Career Services will not post positions from job posting organizations or resume referral services that collect data on job seekers and display job opportunities to which job seekers may apply.
12. Third-party recruiters will abide by OSU Career Services general employer policies in addition to third-party policies.

Oklahoma State University requires all third-party companies to comply with the above stated requirements. If the agency is unable to comply, the University will be unable to provide services to the agency. Our attempt is not to alienate third-party companies, but to prevent association with agencies involved in unquestionable, unethical, and/or illegal recruiting practices.

I have read the policy and procedures for Third-Party Recruiters engaging in employment activities with Oklahoma State University, and agree to abide by this contract as written. Please sign and date the form below.
