Biography

I am the Manager of Onboarding at Inceed. I started 4 years ago as a IT recruiter and was quickly promoted. I am in charge of hiring everyone internally for our company and our five markets. This means I see a lot of resumes and do lots of interviews.

About my Organization

INCEED is a rapidly growing Recruiting and Consulting firm focused on helping our clients identify and hire technical talent, business professionals, and project management professionals. We serve clients in several markets, and currently have offices in Houston, Oklahoma City, Denver, Raleigh and Tulsa.

While we have clients that span many markets, most of our customers rely on advanced technology for the success of their business. We value relationships and believe in flexibility and integrity. We are committed to serving two customers - buyers of technical services and talented technical professionals.
